

U.S. Martial Arts Center

Children's Home Rules

1. Taekwondo Students must show respect to their parents and family members at all times.
2. Taekwondo Students shall greet their parents with, "Hi Mom! Hi Dad!" when they enter the home and tell them "Goodbye!" when they leave.
3. Taekwondo Students shall be truthful at all times.
4. Taekwondo Students will be kind to their brothers, sisters and friends.
5. Taekwondo Students will help with household chores.
6. Taekwondo Students will keep their room neat and clean.
7. Taekwondo Students will keep their body, hair, teeth clean always.
8. Taekwondo Students will not interrupt adult conversations.
9. Taekwondo Students will show respect to teachers and peers at all times.
10. Taekwondo Students will fix a recipe for straight "A's" by:
 - a. Doing their homework.
 - b. Reviewing what the teacher has taught.
 - c. Preview what you will study in the next lesson.

Children who do not cheerfully obey their Parents, Elders, Teachers, Master and Grandmaster may be reduced in belt rank or be held back from testing.